

Test Methods, Validation, and Verification Quiz

Passing score = 80%

Select the correct answer.

1. T F New non-standard methods must be validated.
 2. T F A laboratory cannot use methods that they design.
 3. T F Range and accuracy of a validation study should never include cross-sensitivity against interferences.
 4. T F Validation confirms the new method meets requirements for a specific use.
 5. T F Data integrity procedures do not need to be implemented for computer data.
 6. T F Laboratory software and modifications to commercial software need to be validated.
7. Policies and procedures should be
- A. Up to date B. Readily available to staff C. Stored under lock and key D. A & B
8. Deviations from instructions need to be
- A. Accepted by the customer B. Documented C. Authorized D. A, B & C
9. What data does not need to be checked in a systematic manner?
- A. Manual and electronic calculations and data transfers B. Any Excel spreadsheet C. Excel spreadsheets with calculations D. A & B only
10. Deviations do not have to be
- A. Documented B. Technically justified C. Documented as a nonconformance D. Authorized and accepted by the customer
11. Match the correct term and definition:
- A. Policies
B. Processes
C. Procedures
D. Forms & records
- ____How to do it
____How it happens
____What we do
____What happened